(e) if not, the reasons therefor?

THE MINISTER OF TEXTILES (SHRI SHANKERSINH VAGHELA): (a) to (e) Government had invited project proposals from all State Governments/ Union Territories for consideration under the 'Apparel Parks for Exports' Scheme. Since the inception of Scheme in March, 2002, twelve Project Proposals have been sanctioned for setting up Apparel Parks at Tronica City and Kanpur (U.P.), Surat (Gujarat), Thiruvananthapuram (Kerala), Visakhapatnam (Andhra Pradesh), Ludhiana (Punjab), Bangalor (Karnataka), Tirupur and Kanchipuram (Tamil Nadu), SEZ, Indore (Madhya Pradesh), Mahal, Jaipur, (Rajasthan) and Butibori-Nagpur (Maharashtra). Netaji Apparel Park at Tirupur has become operational and the other sanctioned Apparel Park projects are at different stages of implementation.

In view of the experience gained during the last three years of the operation of 'Apparel Parks for Exports' schemes, Government has undertaken a mid-course review of the Scheme with the basic objective of bringing in urgency in implementation of the Scheme. Extensive discussions have been held in the Inter-Ministerial meetings with the stakeholders/State Governments, wherein it was proposed to effect modifications in the Scheme to bring in proper targeting, aggressive marketing, involvement of private sector and to increase the level of assistance under the Scheme.

Clandestine imports of Chinese raw silk

1695. SHRI B.K. HARIPRASAD: Will the Minister of TEXTILES be pleased to state:

(a) whether Government have launched futures trading in cocoon and raw silk at the National Commodity and Derivative Exchanges to enable the actual users to cover price fluctuations;

(b) whether this move will solely benefit the buyer/end-users of cocoon and raw silk to the detriment of producers/sellers who are small marginal farmers; and

(c) what are reasons of addressing in the basic issue of clandestine imports of Chinese raw silk resulting in destablization of domestic market?

THE MINISTER OF TEXTILES (SHRI SHANKERSINH VAGHELA):

(a) and (b) Yes, Sir. Futures trading in raw silk and cocoons has been launched by Central Silk Board (CSB) at the platform of National Commodity and Derivatives Exchange Ltd. (NCDEX) on 20th January, 2005. Futures trading provides, an attemate trading avenue for the stake holders like farmers, rubers, weavers and traders and helps them through a better price discovery for their produce. It also helps them to present the risk associated with price rise and fall and its volatility through hedging. Futures trading will not be detrimental to the benefit of producers/sellers who are small/marginal Farmers.

(c) Import of Silk is under Open General License (OGL) since 2001. Silk imports into India, mainly from China, have increased substantially after the removal of quantitative restrictions on 1.4.2001 and prices have also fallen at the same time, leading to market disruption. The matter of putting a curb on clandestine imports through the borders falls under the purview of Central Board of Exicse and Customs (CBEC) which keeps vigil on the borders of Bangladesh and Nepal to curb illicit import into the country.
